In the EU Referendum 52% of votes cast across the UK were to leave, while in Scotland 62% were to remain. The UK Government has said it will proceed with negotiations to leave the EU. The Scottish Government has proposed a plan to remain in the European single market. Thinking about the UK Government's approach to the Brexit negotiations, which of the following statements best reflects your views?

It is important that the plan proposed by the Scottish Government to remain in the European single market is taken seriously and raised by the UK Government in its negotiations with the EU	51	68	40	69	23	52	27	46	44	66	48	53	50	63	55	47	42	58	45
The UK Government need not factor in the plan proposed by the Scottish Government to remain in the European single market, and need not raise it in its negotiations with the EU	29	17	41	16	58	12	60	37	42	19	19	33	25	11	21	36	48	26	31
