If there was a referendum on Britain's membership of the European Union, how would you vote?

I would vote for Britain to remain a member of the European Union	37	32	52	65	3	23	49	52	43	31	53	41	35	29	45	25	47	36	31	34	48	97	1	17

David Cameron has said he will seek to renegotiate British membership of the EU and then hold a referendum on whether Britain should remain a member.

Generally speaking, do you support or oppose this policy?

Thinking about a renegotiation of Britain's membership of the European Union, which of the following best reflects your view?

There is no need to renegotiate Britain's membership of the EU - our current relationship is fine and is good for British interests	10	4	16	22	0	3	15	15	11	10	20	13	9	6	13	7	12	9	11	9	15	27	0	4
Our relationship with the European Union is broadly okay as it is, but there are some areas where we should seek reassurances or changes to existing rules to protect British interests	24	21	32	43	1	16	29	36	27	21	30	28	24	18	28	19	30	24	22	22	27	58	4	7
Our relationship with the European Union has some significant problems, and we need to make substantial changes and secure opt-outs of some EU rules and powers for membership to be in Britain's interests	27	43	20	20	24	37	25	22	26	27	13	25	28	32	27	27	29	27	29	24	25	11	22	55
Our relationship with the European Union has major problems, there would need to be massive and fundamental changes for membership to ever be in British interests	25	26	18	9	71	37	18	17	28	23	10	14	27	39	21	31	16	27	27	28	19	1	69	31

Any major changes to Britain's relationship with the European Union would require a new treaty with the European Union, agreed by all the other countries in the EU.

In practical terms, what sort of renegotiation of Britain's membership do you think other EU countries would agree to?

None at all - other European countries probably not agree to any changes in Britain's relationship	24	20	25	20	48	25	28	21	23	26	11	23	26	29	24	25	20	23	27	25	27	22	37	25
Minor changes - other European countries would probably agree to minor changes and clarifications in Britain's relationship with Europe, but nothing major	43	51	45	62	24	46	43	52	48	39	46	44	43	42	49	36	46	45	43	38	44	66	26	47
Significant changes - other European countries would probably agree to significant changes to Britain's relationship with Europe, including allowing Britain to opt-out of some EU rules and powers	15	21	13	10	22	18	14	11	18	12	13	14	15	16	13	17	15	15	16	16	10	5	26	24

Below are some suggestions people have made on what changes David Cameron should seek in renegotiations with the European Union. In each case, please say whether you think it would be good for Britain, and how important it should be in any renegotiation.

Some people say that if Britain were to leave the EU, some British jobs would be at risk because we would no longer be part of Europe's single market; as a result we might find it harder to sell goods and services to the EU and international companies might invest less in Britain. How big a risk do you think that withdrawal from the EU would be bad for jobs and investment here in Britain?

A big risk	24	15	36	49	2	12	33	35	28	20	33	23	24	20	29	17	30	24	20	21	32	65	0	7

Imagine David Cameron secured a modest renegotiation of Britain's relationship with the European Union, securing guarantees over some key issues that he said protected British interests, but without any major change in which policy areas the European Union has powers in. How would you then vote?
