Charlie Hebdo magazine published a new edition in Paris this week following the shooting of several members of their staff last week
On the front page of their magazine they published a cartoon of the Prophet Mohammed
Do you think it was right or wrong for Charlie Hebdo to put a cartoon of the Prophet Mohammed on their new edition?

It has been proposed that phone and internet companies should be required to retain everyone's data - internet browsing history, emails, voice calls, social media interactions, and mobile messaging - for 12 months. Police and intelligence agencies would have access to this information for anti-terrorism purposes.
