Currently Britain is due to leave the European Union on October 31st.

If a deal has not been approved by October 31st, what do you think should happen?

Britain should leave without a deal	44	68	16	8	98	72	26	17	14	81	51	38	22	35	51	64	40	50	28	48	49	45	36

If the next Conservative leader seeks to leave the European Union without a deal, do you think they would be able to do so, or do you think Parliament would block them?

Would probably be able to leave without a deal	23	35	14	13	44	31	16	10	13	33	27	19	16	19	26	30	23	22	17	27	23	22	16

Some people have suggested that if Parliament seeks to block a "no deal" Brexit, then the government should "prorogue" Parliament. This would mean Parliament would not sit until after Britain had left the European Union, and MPs would not be able to Vote on whether to leave without a deal.

Do you think it would be acceptable or unacceptable for the government to prorogue Parliament to prevent the Commons voting against no deal?

Acceptable to prorogue Parliament in this way	30	44	13	8	70	49	16	10	9	55	36	24	20	23	32	44	28	32	24	31	31	31	26

YouGov Weighting Data

YouGov weights GB political surveys by (1) age interlocked with gender and education, (2) political attention (3) social grade (4) 2017 recalled vote interlocked with region and (5) EU referendum recalled vote. Weighting targets are YouGov estimates, data sources used in the calculation of targets are cited below. General election voting intention figures are additionally weighted by likelihood to vote. The poll was carried out online.

All polls are subject to a wide range of potential sources of error. On the basis of the historical record of the polls at recent general elections, there is a 9 in 10 chance that the true value of a party's support lies within 4 points of the estimates provided by this poll, and a 2 in 3 chance that they lie within 2 points.
