Under the proposed Brexit agreement
there will be a transition period after Brexit, during which Britain and the EU
will negotiate a longer term trade deal.
If a long term deal has not been agreed by the end of the transition period there would be a "backstop deal" to avoid a hard border in Northern Ireland. All the UK would remain in a customs union, and Northern Ireland would in addition follow
EU single market rules. The "backstop" deal would continue until both the UK
and the EU agreed it was no longer needed.

Which of the following best reflects your view?

The backstop makes sense and should be part of the deal	18	16	24	35	15	23	23	26	11	19	18	22	19	17	15	21	15	20	21	16	13	23
