In 2013 Nicola Sturgeon described a referendum on independence as being a "once in a generation" event. Which of the following best reflects your view?

A referendum should be once in a generation, and Scotland should not have another referendum until many more years have passed	40	6	70	84	66	75	9	42	39	31	38	39	47	45	36
A referendum should be once in a generation, but if the political situation changes then it may be right to have another referendum sooner	24	32	18	13	18	15	31	24	23	37	31	18	19	26	22
A referendum is not necessarily once in a generation, and there would not be anything wrong in having another referendum sooner	29	58	6	0	6	5	56	29	29	20	23	36	30	25	33

Which of the following best reflects your view?

I would support Scotland having a second referendum on independence in the next few years, regardless of what happens in the EU referendum	35	72	6	0	6	7	67	36	34	26	33	38	36	32	38
I do not support Scotland having a second referendum on independence in the next few years, but would do if Britain voted to leave the European Union	15	12	16	10	19	19	14	19	11	24	20	10	12	20	11
