2. Moderate
3. High
4. Severe
5. Extreme
6. Catastrophic

A4 Which of the following has the most influence on reducing the impact of climate change on the South Australian environment?

RANDOMISE

1. Federal Government
2. State Government
3. Local Councils
4. Corporations and industry
5. Community groups
6. Individuals
7. Don't know

A5 How much of a difference can an ordinary South Australian like you make in terms of reducing the impact of climate change?

RANDOM REVERSE 1-4

1. A great deal of difference
2. A fair amount of difference
3. Not much difference
4. No difference at all

A6 Which is closer to your own view?

RANDOM REVERSE 1-4

1. I want action on climate change even if it increases my cost of living significantly
2. I want action on climate change even if it increases my cost of living a bit
3. I want action on climate change but not if it increases my cost of living
4. I don't want action on climate change

A7 Which of the following should be the highest priority for action in your view? Which is the second highest priority? Which is the third highest priority

RANDOMISE 1-8

1. Loss of connection to nature and sense of place
2. Increasing numbers of pest plants and animals (e.g. feral cats and blackberry bushes)
3. Loss of urban trees and shade
4. Loss of native animals and habitat
5. Sea level rise and coastal erosion
6. Healthy waterways for parks, gardens and wildlife
7. A hotter, drier Greater Adelaide more prone to bushfires and droughts
8. Urban development encroaching on open public spaces

A8 In South Australia last year, renewables provided 60% of the state's electricity supply, more than any other mainland state. Which is closer to your own view?

ROTATE 1&2

1. South Australia should increase the proportion of its power that is generated using renewables like wind and solar
2. South Australia needs to keep non-renewable sources of power like gas turbines to prevent future blackouts
3. Don't know

A9 Unlike fossil fuel-fired power plants, nuclear reactors do not produce air pollution or carbon dioxide while operating. Some people believe that nuclear power should be a part of South Australia's future energy generation, while others say it poses unacceptable risks to the environment in the case of accidents.

Would you support or oppose allowing the construction of a nuclear reactor in South Australia to generate electricity?

RANDOM REVERSE 1-3

1. I'd support it
2. I'd consider supporting it depending on the details
3. I'd oppose it
4. Don't know
