In a number of constituencies people were unable to vote because of problems at polling stations. It has been argued that either the individual constituency elections affected should be re-run or the entire General Election re-run to ensure that everybody who wanted to vote was able to. This could mean the result of the election is delayed for some time and would cost a great deal of government money.

What do you think should happen?

The entire General Election should be re-run	20	21	21	18	17	24	22	19	20	18	24	16	18	24	23	21
Elections should be re-run ONLY in the constituencies affected	37	36	34	43	35	38	38	39	34	36	38	41	40	34	33	36
None of the election should be re-run	35	38	41	32	42	29	31	33	42	39	31	35	35	37	35	38
