

YouGov Survey Results

The Congestion Charge

Prepared for The Evening Standard

Sample Size: 1088 Londoners
Fieldwork: 17-18 December 2003

	%
Do you support or oppose the congestion charge, which was introduced earlier this year, which requires motorists to pay £5 a day to drive in central London between 7am and 6.30pm on weekdays?
Support	57
Oppose	36
Don't know	7
	0
Some people say that some London businesses have been hurt by the congestion charge, and propose that it should operate in the morning, but not the afternoon, in order to help London business. Would you support or oppose this proposal?	0
Support – congestion charge should end at lunchtime	49
Oppose – hours should stay the same	34
Don't know	17
	0
The charging area covers central London. The Mayor is now proposing to extend it. Do you think the scheme should cover a wider area of inner London, or remain as it is?	0
Congestion charge area should be extended	25
Congestion charge area should remain as it is	64
Don't know	11